

HERKIMER COUNTY JOB OPENING

Department: Social Services

Title: Child Protective Services Caseworker
Anticipated, Permanent Opening, Full Time Position

Salary: $56,592.00 (2026 base pay rate)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: A Child Protective Worker is expected to assure the life and safety of children who have been reported as abused or neglected by their parents or caretakers. The Child Protective Worker often encounters very troubled and complex family environments, which require great sensitivity and a professional social work approach to the duties. The worker is expected to perform investigations in accordance with State and Local regulations to assess the risk to the child and to perform such social work functions as counseling and case management as may be necessary. The work will be performed under supervision, with in-service training provided either through outside agencies or by the agency's Staff Development Programs.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Graduation from a standard senior high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma issued by the New York State Education Department, plus;

Either (A) Graduation from a recognized college or university with a four year program in Human Services in which a Bachelor's Degree is granted, acceptable programs will include Sociology, Psychology and Social Work, AND two years of acceptable, full-time, paid experience in Social Work with a public or private agency adhering to acceptable standards;

Or (B) Possession of a Master's in Social Work Degree (MSW) earned from a recognized college or university;

Or (C) Any equivalent combination of training and experience defined by (A) and (B) above.
